How I became a Radio Presenter

I am a Radio Presenter for Hayes FM 91.8, based in Acton (under Ealing Council). I started in Radio in February 2020, but in March 2020, the professional Hayes studios closed due to the Pandemic. This didn't stop the passion - I learnt how to use Adobe editing programmes and built a home studio in my lounge! My current show is a New Music Release show (think BBC Music introducing/Annie Mac/Huw Stephens). I support local musicians and emerging artists as well as some slightly further afield.
